CARAZ

Two times gold YDA winner Caraz is a young director on the rise based in Montreal. With a background in photography, Caraz explores striking characters who challenge status quo. Her ability to create highly crafted aesthetics with an emotional approach gives her films not only a sense of style but also personality. Growing up Caraz dreamt of being an F1 driver, but her path led her to receive a Bachelor's in Television from Université du Québec à Montréal, later went on to study Advertising Production at USC in Los Angeles.
